Bulgaria Told it Can't Escape Responsibility.

[THE GAZETTE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
 PARIS, Nov. 7.—The Supreme court today decided to appoint a commission to draft a final list of individuals charged with violations of laws of war whom Germany must answer for trial. The com-will compare the lists furnished by the various Allies, formulate a method of procedure for trials and designate the places from the various tribunals will sit.

PARIS, Thursday, Nov. 6.—In the morning letter of the Allied reply to the Bulgarian delegation's representations regarding the peace presented to Bulgaria, it is stated that the Bulgarian Government cannot be freed from responsibility and that, therefore, the conditions of peace as they demanded the Bulgarian delegation set forth, were inspired by any idea of vengeance and the Allies do not intend to let Bulgaria pay for all her mistakes. They wish only, it is stated, to establish a peace just, firm and fertile, and they remind the Bulgarians that they must consider an outlet to the sea.

GRID THRILLS ON TAP TODAY.

Trojans Grapple with Bears on Boulevard Field.

"Gloomy Gus" Looks Forward to Easy Defeat.

Dope Gives Local Lads a Very Slim Chance.

BY PAUL LOWRY.

Will it be the Cardinal and Gold of U.S.C. or the Blue and Gold of California that will triumph over Boulevard Field at the finish of today's great football classic?

The form charts make the California eleven a heavy favorite. The dope, that highly intricate and profound system, of estimating probabilities, has it that the Bears should score at least three or four touchdowns.

"Gloomy Gus" Henderson, the U.S.C. coach, who does his crystal gazing through the small end of a pair of binoculars, has predicted a 25 to 0 victory for the Bears. Even "Cap" Bryant, the U.S.C. trainer, has absorbed some of Henderson's gloom. He was heard to remark the other night that he believed the score would be 27 to 0. That was before he and Henderson had collaborated.

WHAT DOPE SAYS.

Taking Henderson's forecasts as a basis we find that five touchdowns and five kicked goals would total exactly 35 points. Delving into the realm of figures we discover that California defeated Occidental 41 to 0, and that two weeks later the Tigers bowed to the U.S.C. skill by a score of 27 to 0. The Bears scored 49 of their 61 points in the first half against Occidental and the Trojans 20 of their 27.

Assuming that the ratio of improvement of the team—California, Occidental and U.S.C.—has been the same the Bears have a five-touchdown superiority according to the "dope."

CHICK FOX IS ELECTED CAPTAIN.

John "Chick" Fox, left guard, was last night elected captain of the U.S.C. football team.

A senior in the law school, this is Fox's third and last year on the varsity. He is one of the most conscientious workers on the team. Fox stands six feet one inch in his stocking feet, and weighs 182 pounds.

and Gold superiority. The game will be played on the Trojan's own doormat and before a sympathetic crowd. On top of that if the day is warm the spectators will be at a distinct disadvantage. They are accustomed to a far colder climate than our usual balmy afternoons.

Henderson has his men in wonderful condition that they will be able to stand the gaff on a hot day 100 per cent, before the game.

However, in spite of these hot day conditions, California should win all odds. If the Blue and Gold is licked today, Coach Andy Smith ought to be the prize nominee for the sunrise firing squad. He has everything in the way of material this year that any coach possessing the cheerful word "hope" in his vocabulary, could long for.

On the other hand, however, as has Henderson, of bemoaning the huge incompetency of his players—for the public's benefit.

Taking the players man for man, California has a big advantage. From tackle to tackle the Trojan forwards are about on a par with their Bear opponents. Coach Andy Crammer of U.S.C. has little if anything on Evans or Beale of U.S.C. Barnes and Beale, the northern guards, may be a little more aggressive than Fox and Townsend, the local pair, but that is doubtful.

Eddie Simpson alone seems at a disadvantage with "Fat" Latham of the Blue and Gold.

On the end, California has it on U.S.C. Hall and Cline are not world-beaters, but they are far superior to the Trojan hopes, Tooten and Smith. And here it is that the coach will be won or lost for U.S.C.

OPEN TO BACKS.

If Coach Henderson elects to strengthen his ends by spreading his line, attacking the Bear's left end to the northern back. Ordinarily it would be almost impossible to gain through the U.S.C. line. Then the aerial route is left open for the Bears to attack by.

With the U.S.C. backfield playing in close, all that California needs is an accurate forward-passer and a good receiver. If the secondary defense stays back, the Bears have a line to plunge through.

This hypothetical case is based, of course, on the supposed weakness of the Trojan ends. If the Bears are not so weak, the Bears have a line to plunge through.

Now, supposing that the line is spread to help the ends, and that the secondary defense moves in to say five yards back of the line of scrimmage. Then the aerial route is left open for the Bears to attack by.

BABE RUTH IS A REAL STAR.

Greatest One-Man Drawing Card in Baseball.

Sluggish may Appear Here Again Next Week.

Duffy Lewis to Retire from New York Yanks.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

Babe Ruth bids fair to make the biggest clean-up of any baseball athlete that ever visited the Coast. He is about the only player to name his own terms for exhibition appearances and get them.

In recent past we have had Lajoie, Donlin, Matthewson, Daubert, Bresnahan, Chase, Alexander, Collins, Doyle, Corbett, Walsh, Chance—in fact, practically all the headlines with the exception of Wagner and Cobb.

But few of them accumulated much change. Some of them were here with their teams in spring training, and got only eats and lodging for their public appearances, the proceeds going to the club owners. Others came as players on a percentage basis. The best of these cleaned up only a few hundred dollars in excess of their expenses.

Ruth's appearance here was the first attempt to stage an individual baseball star. True, he was surrounded by good players, but Babe was the headliner, was billed as such and it was for the purpose of seeing him for home runs that the fans paid extra prices. This thing of playing up one man was a rather risky experiment, because the best of the best are not always reliable.

A few years ago a Los Angeles fan made a trip to Pittsburgh in order to see the great home run hitter. This was to be the crowning event of his baseball career. He had looked forward to it for a good many years. The westerner arrived in Pittsburgh when Honus was in a slump. The first day, Wagner whiffed three times and muffed an easy fly ball. The big decided that he had been worshipping a false idol and grabbed the next train home.

Ruth wrote his own ticket in Los Angeles. It called for $500 a game and expenses, including transportation. The owner of the team, who had been able to stay the rest of the round, in the end, however, was forced to back out. Ketchell, who was the only one to stay, was paid a fee of $1500.

Ruth is scheduled to appear three times in San Francisco and Oakland today and tomorrow, playing in the afternoon at the latter place and for the benefit of the Committee on Sunday morning. It is understood that he will receive $500 for each appearance. The owner of the team, who has been able to stay the rest of the round, in the end, however, was forced to back out. Ketchell, who was the only one to stay, was paid a fee of $1500.

While Ruth has set a western record for baseball stars in point of drawing power, it is not the money which he has cleaned up on western diamonds is only a starter. He has been engaged to appear in a baseball story which will be filmed here. For this it is said, he will receive more than the salary paid him by the Boston Red Sox.

PROFITABLE TRIP.

As his contract with the Red Sox next season calls for $10,000, the student of baseball can see how easily figure that his trip to the Coast will prove an exceedingly profitable one, especially as the making of the picture will not interfere with his regular business of playing baseball in Boston.

It is possible that Ruth may make just two more appearances at Washington Park. An effort is being made to lure him to the Coast to appear in a picture. If he does, he will be paid a fee of $1500.

Announcement by Duffy Lewis that he will retire from baseball, easily figure that his trip to the Coast will prove an exceedingly profitable one, especially as the making of the picture will not interfere with his regular business of playing baseball in Boston.

CHOOSE OFFICIALS FOR GRID GAMES.

W. L. Kehnholz will referee today's game between California and U.S.C. The other officials will be: Israel, umpire; Badenoch, head linesman; and Whittle, field judge.

Seward A. Simons, who has appointed all the officials at collegiate games in the south this year, was the rescuing angel that averted the threatened deadlock. Coach Andy Smith of California wanted Bradnock, a northerner, to referee. U.S.C. suggested either Kehnholz or Abbott. The conflicting parties met yesterday and decided to leave the matter to Simons's judgment.

Simons last night announced the officials for the other college games scheduled for today as follows: Occidental vs. Throop, Abbott, referee; Rinehart, umpire; Foley, head linesman; and Blase, field judge. Young Ketchell vs. Redlands, referee; Sid Foster, umpire; Vall, head linesman; and Fred Johnson, field judge.

BY ED O'MALLEY.

Those Tuesday night fans that stayed away from Jack Doyle's boxing arena last night missed the best bout that has been put on at Vernon in many moons. It was the feature event between Eddie Mahoney and Young Ketchell. The exhibition of the nifty moves in the many art of self-defense was a treat for all.

The first round was a sort of a feeler for each of the boys. Ketchell was as elusive as a flea on a holiday. In the second round, however, matters came to a crisis. About the middle of it Ketchell caught Eddie a misty right on the jaw that shook the arena. Ketchell had almost off his feet. Mahoney, stung to the quick, rushed viciously at his man, and with a right to the nose with a stinging left, he let go a lightning-like right to the jaw and down he went.

DOWN FOR SEVEN.

The floored lad showed a great generosity by taking the count of seven for himself. He was not hurt considerably and he was able to stay the rest of the round. In the third round, Ketchell was the one to be knocked out. He was down for seven.

The last round was a sad one for Ketchell, whose left eye began to swell. He was down for seven. He was down for seven.

The other bouts unfolded as follows: Sailor Burrows beat Jimmy Marshall; Henry Gastine and Jack Davis fought a draw; Jack Spar, as did Harry Beches on Billy Mason, and Red Benson defeated Battling Frankie Doyle was asked to officiate, but refused to do so unless put on the regular pay roll. W.C. AND OREGON FIGHT FOR HONORS.

PORTLAND (Ore.) Nov. 7.—Washington State College and University of Oregon football teams will meet here tomorrow in what promised to be one of the hardest fought games of this year's gridiron season.

The Pacific Coast Intercollegiate Conference championship is said virtually to hinge on the result of tomorrow's game, for the winner of tomorrow's game is hardly expected to meet defeat in later games.

Washington State is handicapped by the loss of Dick Haney, star half-back, who will be unable to play tomorrow. Coach Howard Miller, R. B. Armstrong, Walter Stein and Roscoe Barles.

The purse is $5000, split three ways. There also will be a $1000 twenty-five-mile race for southwest, cars, especially for the cars of the El Paso-Phoenix contest and a novelty race for $500.

Today's races resulted as follows: 2:08 trot, purse $5000. Hollywood Fights Manual Arts to a Standstill

Foster's Men Lack the Necessary Pinches

Red and Whites Put up Game of Football

Hollywood High came out on long end of a 0-10 football yesterday afternoon. The Red Whites took the touting Manual champions, and fought them a standard. Foster's men were long runs, and outplayed the champions, but Hillman played ball, saved wood and held a pinches.

Manual Arts had the ball in the wood's territory most of the day. The Red Whites played the field by line backs and end, and got into scoring position, but Hillman played ball, saved wood and held a pinches.

FUMBLE. Manual Arts had the ball in the wood's territory most of the day. The Red Whites played the field by line backs and end, and got into scoring position, but Hillman played ball, saved wood and held a pinches.

Several times the Manual men were in the shadow of the points, and with a little push, have scored. They didn't have a punch.

Hollywood was fighting odds, and knew it. And the played real football every day. The way they made no runs were accurate in knowing what to do at every stage of the game. Manual Arts team showed the decision at several points, and handle the ball in a very manner and fumbled several times when tumbled around.

In the third quarter, Hollywood took the ball on an intercepted ward pass and charged up the field. The Red Whites were in the yard, however, and the Hollywood couldn't score. Later Manual duplicated the same play, and the Hollywood backs crept up and the runner from behind.

was three inches from Hollywood goal. Coach Johnson demonstrated he has a real football team at the wood. Foster's outfit didn't the form of previous years.

This is the reason why the scholastic football situation. The Red Whites are both in the yard, however, and the Hollywood couldn't score. Later Manual duplicated the same play, and the Hollywood backs crept up and the runner from behind.

The matter will be decided next week. There seems to be no ruling covering the case.

SHONT'S WILL IGNORE'S WIFE.

Bulk of His Estate Goes to a "Certain Woman."

Widow Receives Portrait and Life Insurance.

Has Herself Appointed Temporary Administratrix.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Milla D. Shonts appeared in the Surrogate's Court, yesterday, and had herself appointed temporary administratrix of the estate of the late Theodore P. Shonts, president of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, after asserting that her husband had been under the domination of another woman for a considerable period prior to his death, on September 21 last.

Mrs. Shonts declared in her petition that her husband had left to a "certain woman" not related to him, either directly or collaterally, the bulk of his estate by a will which was drawn during his illness, while Mrs. Shonts herself inherited practically little or nothing. She also alleged that Mr. Shonts's assets at $10 Park avenue, for which he paid a rental of $3000 a year, have been stripped of their furnishings, valued at more than $10,000, since his death.

Notice was served by Mrs. Shonts upon Surrogate Fowler, who gave her letters of administration, of her intention to contest any will dictating her of her dower rights. She will make her contest upon the grounds that her husband lacked the testamentary capacity when the supposed will was drawn, and was subjected to undue influence by the "certain woman."

The action of Mrs. Shonts shocked and surprised associates and advisers of her husband, although they were aware of the considerable traction president and his wife had been living apart ever since she sued him in 1915 for a divorce and a separation. Delancey Nicol, legal representative of Mr. Shonts for many years, was plainly distressed by the turn of events, and expressed his opinion that someone was mistaken.

"There is no truth in the statement that Mrs. Shonts was left out of her husband's will, and I don't understand why this application is made in the circumstances," he said.

"Mr. Shonts made a will some time ago, and probably added a codicil to the instrument, but Mrs. Shonts is not among the beneficiaries," he said.

Mr. Nicol explained that the will had not been offered for probate in deference to the Duchen O'Connell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shonts, who is on her way to this country from abroad.

"We wanted the Duchen present before submitting the will," said Mr. Nicol. "I do not know why such action was made, and I am added. There is certainly nothing to it, as Mr. Shonts's will was drawn before his recent illness. Every member of his family shares in the estate."

Mrs. Shonts significantly declared that the only next of kin who are rightfully interested in the distribution of the estate are, besides herself, her daughters, Duchen O'Connell, and Mrs. Shonts. The will of Theodore P. Shonts was filed for probate here today. After making provision for various members of his family, the residuary estate is left to "my friend," Amanda O. Thomas of 930 Park avenue.

The will was filed by Delancey Nicol, as Mr. Shonts's attorney. The widow of Mr. Shonts was granted temporary letters of administration upon the estate yesterday by Surrogate Fowler. She estimated that her husband left property worth nearly $500,000, and declared that no later will could be found, although diligent search had been made. Mrs. Shonts expressed fear that the major part of the property might go to another woman.

WILL'S HIS PORTRAIT.

The will left to Mrs. Shonts a life insurance policy for $5000 and a portrait of Mr. Shonts by Prince Prometheus. The document stated that Mrs. Shonts was provided for in an agreement executed in June, 1917, and for that reason he makes no further provision for her except to acknowledge an indebtedness to her of $100,000, payable five months after his death.

The will leaves all of the jewelry "given to me by my friend, Amanda C. Thomas, to her son Herbert Thomas."

A bequest of $2500 is left to Vivian Bell and one of $2000 to "my friend," Louise Keoman.

According to the will a trust fund of $50,000 each previously had been created for the daughters and Mr. Shonts directed that the income of another fund of $100,000 be divided equally between them during their lives. Upon their death it will revert to their next of kin.

We Should Go to Church Because
The Church is the Divinely appointed place of worship where we are reminded of our ship with GOD:
The Church marks the difference between a pagan and a Christian civilization, for from the Church has proceeded in the main the noblest streams of influence which have purified and elevated life:
The Church is the only answer to Bolshevism; for no Church—no Sabbath; no Sabbath; no religion; no religion—no morality; no morality—ANARCHY:
The Church has the message of Peace, Civilization and Strength, the imperative need of human life.

A resolution adopted by the Board of Supervisors yesterday congratulates the people of San Diego and Imperial counties upon the completion of the San Diego Railroad, which is conceded to be a great work. The opening of the road will be celebrated December 1-6, next.

The railroad is 135 miles long, was built under extraordinary difficulties and cost approximately $17,000,000. It is considered the largest and most expensive piece of railroad building completed in the United States during the last five years. It marks the entrance into Southern California of a new transcontinental railway.

"IF A MAN DIE."
CHURCH OF THE PEOPLE.
A materialistic philosopher of Germany once wrote a book entitled "Can We Be Sure of Immortality?" Many years later a Los Angeles scholar wrote a trenchant answer to the question, in a little volume called "Can We Be Sure of Mortality?" The world-old question, "Is there life after death?" seems to be superceded, in modern days, by the interesting query: "Since man lives, is it possible for him to die?" The question of life, death and immortality will be discussed at length at the Church of the People tomorrow morning by Rev. E. E. Blight, who will give a series of discourses on the subject "If a Man Die, Shall He Live?"

"DOES GOD SEND SICKNESS?"
FIRST UNITED PRESBYTERIAN.
The "New World Movement," a forward movement by the United Presbyterian Church, akin to the new era movement in the Presbyterian church and the century movement in the Methodist church, will be discussed at the First United Presbyterian Church tomorrow morning, by Dr. J. Howard Boyd of Egypt. In the evening Rev. Edwin C. Little will attempt to answer the question "Does God Send Sickness and Trouble?" "In these days of conflicting religious philosophies, it is interesting to know what the Bible has to say in answer to this query," says Mr. Little.

H. SHERIDAN BICKER.
IMMANUEL PRESBYTERIAN.
Hon. H. Sheridan Bickers, who recently took part in three battles against the Russian Bolsheviks, and who toured Siberia under the auspices of the American Y.M.C.A., will be the principal speaker tomorrow evening at Immanuel Presbyterian Church. Tomorrow morning, Rev. Herbert Booth Smith will deliver the second sermon in his series on "The Life and Times of Jesus." The subject of the third sermon will be "The Kingdom of God." This being the fourth in a series of lectures given by representatives of various religious denominations. The all-day meeting of the women of the church will be held next Thursday, beginning at 10:30 a.m. This gathering will be in the nature of a thank offering meeting, the members offering up special thanks on account of the fact that it has not been necessary to change any of the 120 stars in the service flag from red to gold. SHOW YOUR COLORS!
BE AN AMERICAN FIRST!

Beware of the radical agitators and alien enemies who are using the strike in free America as the means to effect an industrial revolution.

It is not by mere chance that strike has followed strike with the regularity of clockwork in the great American industries.

It is not because the workmen labor unreasonable hours or are underpaid. The great volume of the strikers are foreigners who are receiving three or four times as much pay as they ever had in their lives before.

The steel strike and the coal strike were organized with all the care and strategy of a military campaign. They mark two of the offensives of the Bolshevik plotters who are trying to smash the American republic, destroy the Constitution and set up a soviet government on the ruins.

This charge is fully sustained by evidence in the hands of government agents. The plot was originally hatched in Great Britain, and was disclosed there. It was to affect both countries. But it was exposed by the British government and the English railway strike, which was to be the beginning of a revolution to overthrow the government, resulted in failure.

WHERE LOYALTY AND PATRIOTISM WON.

There was too much loyalty and patriotism among all classes in Great Britain for such a treasonable movement to succeed.

But failure in Great Britain has not caused the plan to be abandoned here. The steel strike was ordered over the protests of President Wilson and of the American members of the steel miners' unions. Foreign emissaries made dupes of a few American-born syndicalists and used them as catspaws.

Then came the coal strike, organized by the same treasonable elements and intended to bring widespread misery to the country. Cold and hunger are powerful aids to Bolshevism. They are not to be feared under normal conditions by the working classes in this country, who are the best paid in the world.

So the I.W.W. and the treasonable foreigners connived at a series of strikes which would stop production, increase prices and inflict a manipulated famine on America as in Russia. They care not how many women and children perish of cold and hunger, so long as they make progress with their industrial revolution.

MAKING BOLSHEVIST OMELETTES.

Those who perish of privations caused by the strikes are regarded by them simply as so many eggs broken to make a Bolshevik omelette.

The steel strike has failed. The coal strike is failing; but another big strike is being organized to keep the industrial pot boiling, in the hope that it will finally bubble over.

Now the radicals and Bolshevik emissaries are fomenting discord among the railway workers. They have plotted to have a railway strike started that will tie up all the transportation lines of the country by the time the coal strike is proved a failure.

Loyal workers of every craft will be doing a patriotic duty in exposing these enemies of the republic who are fomenting revolution through inciting labor troubles.

ONE FLAG; ONE COUNTRY.

Strikes do not produce higher wages; but they are the prime factors in the high cost of living.

Every American workman owes his first allegiance to his flag. He was born a patriot, and to take part in a strike brought for the purpose of overthrowing American institutions is to ally himself with alien enemies.

What justice is there in a foreigner coming to this land of liberty, enjoying equal rights with those whose ancestors made heroic sacrifices that government of the people, for the people and by the people might endure; receiving employment at three or four times the wages he received elsewhere; and rewarding this hospitality by plotting strikes and fomenting revolution?

Yet that is going on in this country right now to an extent the average American does not comprehend. There are 14,000,000 unnaturalized foreigners in this country. Statistics gathered by the Federal Department of Labor show that 7,000,000 of them can neither speak nor write the English language.

If this element is permitted to dominate American industry America will quickly go the way of Greece and Rome. The crisis has come in which every American in every walk of life must do his duty.

REAL AMERICANS IN THE MAKING.

Only a small per cent. of these foreigners are anarchistically inclined. At least 10,000,000 of them are heart and soul with free America. But the 3,000,000 or 4,000,000 turbulent ones must be restrained, or deported, if government under the law is to endure.

The time has come when every loyal friend of freedom, whether a native of this country or foreign born, must be his brother's keeper.

To remain silent when agitators are preaching violence and fomenting strikes and revolution is to acquiesce in their handiwork. Give them back argument for argument and threat for threat.

SEND BOLSHEVISTS BACK TO THEIR TERROR.

Tell them to go back to Lenin and Trotsky if they think them so great. If you are a member of a union and find other members are carrying the red cards of the I.W.W., insist on their expulsion or get out yourself. Make a few examples of the treasonable radicals. Let them know that America is a sanctuary of freedom. Let them feel the full meaning of President Wilson's declaration that:

"Those who attempt to destroy American institutions through violent means shall themselves be destroyed."

Let the turbulent know that they flout American laws and American institutions at their peril.

STOP BUILDING OF APARTMENTS

Pasadena to Buy Land for Public Park.

Officials to Gather to Discuss Tournament of Roses.

Well-Known Woman War Worker Back from France.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.) PASADENA, Nov. 7.—To prevent the building of apartment houses and flats, which would destroy the natural beauty of the Arroyo Seco, the Pasadena City Commission today took the first steps in the creation of an assessment district, looking to the acquisition of all land in the Arroyo Seco south of the Colorado-street bridge for public park purposes.

A great deal of the land in the Arroyo is already owned by the city for park purposes, both below the bridge and above it, where Brookside Park is situated. The new move will give the city the remaining terrain in the southern arroyo.

The action was taken by the Commission today upon the petition of the West Side Improvement Association, which asked that an assessment district be created to raise the $25,000 necessary to purchase the land on Arroyo Drive, where the project for an apartment-house aroused the West Siders to action.

SUGGESTS W. H. TAFT. John McDonald, well-known Pasadena war worker, today suggested William Howard Taft as the Republican Presidential nominee at the next Republican National Convention. Mr. McDonald believes that Mr. Taft can "come back."

Leishman and the directors of the tournament will receive the guests, who will be the Mayor, Chamber of Commerce, and newspaper editors of the various cities.

GREEN OPENS THIS MONTH. Two months ahead of last season, the Hotel Green here will open for the season November 18, according to an announcement today by D. M. Linnard, head of the Linnard chain. Last year the Green did not open until January. The Hotel Huntington, which Mr. Linnard also controls, will open Christmas Day. Robert J. Reid will be resident manager of the Green. Mr. Linnard stated that the hotel would also have open later in the season than has been the custom in the past.

JOINS PLAYHOUSE BOARD. Mrs. Myron Hunt, who, during the war, was head of the American Navy League and the local branch of the War Camp Community Service, has been elected a member of the board of governors of the Pasadena Community Playhouse Association. She succeeds Mrs. A. R. Dickey. Mrs. Hunt plans to give considerable time to the interests of the Community Playhouse movement.

Mother of College President Victim of Accident.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.) CLAREMONT, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Blaisdell, mother of President Blaisdell of Pomona College, met with an accident last Sunday when she fell, as she was about to ascend the stairs, and injured her hip. On account of her advanced years considerable anxiety is felt as to the outcome. Mrs. Blaisdell, who is over 80 years of age, has a surprising vitality, and has just returned from a summer spent at her former home in Beloit, Wis. Last year she was a speaker at the commencement exercises at Mt. Holyoke College, from which she graduated seventy-one years ago. On the day of the accident she had been out to breakfast as a guest and had attended both the morning and afternoon church service.

Corona City Council Sidesteps Sunday Closing Question.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.) CORONA, Nov. 7.—Shall picture shows be allowed to run on Sundays and shall lunch counters, which have pool rooms attached, be permitted to serve lunches to guests on the Sabbath are two questions on which this community is sharply divided.

Owners of the lunch rooms claim that in case they are not allowed to operate that much tourist traffic will be diverted to other points. The City Council at its meeting yesterday sidestepped both questions. Now the advocates of opening both the lunch rooms and the picture shows are taking steps to have both questions placed on the ballot at the next election and a lively fight is in prospect.

"The big topic at the Legislature was the Japanese question and we even went so far as to ask the Governor to call a special session not later than January to take action on this matter. This was in form of a resolution."

"Japanese leasing must be restricted and although I have not decided just what steps are necessary I shall vote for the propositions which seem to best meet the situation," declared the Assemblyman.

MUSICAL. "FLAME OF THE DESERT."

On California Reopening Programme.

ROTHWELL BRINGS DRAMATIC APPEAL TO CLASSICS.

By Edwin Schallert.

Revealing yet another side of his musical personality, Walter Henry Rothwell, at the second concert of the Philharmonic Orchestra yesterday afternoon at Trinity, again manifested his brilliant versatility and penetrating dramatic feeling as an interpreter. There is now no question about his potency as an organizer, nor of his ability to carry out the ideals set forth for the new symphonic organization, which made its first local appearance two weeks ago. At the opening concert, Rothwell proved his understanding of dramatic and more modern schools at the popular concert he demonstrated the surety of his grasp on general appreciation of music; yesterday he showed himself as an artist, not only can sense the finest of the classic, but who feels the dramatic and poetic warmth concealed beneath the marble of the perfect line.

For once, Beethoven was made interesting to all. Even if you did not feel safe in agreeing with the Rothwellian interpretation at all points, you never for a moment found his reading dull. He broke the bounds of trite conventionalism, and searches for the inner significance. Perhaps he does not hear the strains of lighter fancy, but his delicacy is unbounded. And whenever he can swing into a bigger climax of the brass and kettle drums his disarming free rises to its height. He is not afraid to let go the thunders of magnificent, when he can swing into a bigger climax of the brass and kettle drums his disarming free rises to its height. He is not afraid to let go the thunders of magnificent, when he can swing into a bigger climax of the brass and kettle drums his disarming free rises to its height.

The Fifth Symphony was the major work of the programme. And it is a composition that exalts in its brilliancy. Its tonality is C minor. Its melodies are handled with directness and emphasis. You felt as regards Mr. Rothwell's interpretation, that he was constantly aware of this. Considering the length of time the organization has been playing together, his accuracy in phrasing was remarkable. One would say that each instrument section was bound to the baton of the director, so prompt were the answers to each separate call. A finer rendition in this respect, under the conditions imposed, could hardly be imagined. Undoubtedly the work of the largest popular appeal—because, after all, Los Angeles likes its Tchaikovsky—was the Capriccio Italien, and there is no doubt that Rothwell was very skillful in conveying the drama of a programmatic or semi-programmatic composition, such as this. The music had a hectic flush—and occasionally shrieked with hysteria of closely-woven themes, but its lyricism was conserved.

WHITEHILL SOLOIST.

Clarence Whitehill of the Metropolitan Opera, who has not been heard here since he won the Chicago Opera on his last visit, was the soloist, using the "Credo" from Verdi's "Otello." "Quand la Flamme de l'Amour," from "La Jolie Fille de Perth," as his vocal medium. While need of more rehearsal was the slight evidence in the rather too heavy accompaniment for the "Credo," the rendition of the "Bis" aria was superb. Mr. Whitehill is known for his dramatic power, his presence and certainty and bigness of tone. He never hesitates to express himself very satisfactorily in the two arias, neither of which is of the over-popular type.

The Rakey March from "The Damnation of Faust," which closed the programme, again proved the grip which Mr. Rothwell has on climatic effect.

The Philharmonic is justifying the rosiest predictions of its quality as an orchestra, and the musicianship of its conductor. Personally, I would not like to miss a programme this season. I only hope we are due for some novelties in the near future, because while it is a delight to hear the well-known numbers, from a fine organization, still, we know that there need be no fear about essaying the new.

It would be a mistake for the lover of music to miss the repetition of the programme tonight at Trinity.

PHILHARMONIC TO GIVE CONCERT TODAY.

The second symphonic programme by the Philharmonic Orchestra, with Walter Henry Rothwell, conducting, will be presented this afternoon at 8 o'clock.

Clarence Whitehill, baritone of the Metropolitan Opera, is to be soloist. A special rehearsal has been called for this morning by Conductor Rothwell to run through the singer's arias, the "Credo" from "Otello" and the aria from "La Jolie Fille de Perth" which Mr. Whitehill has chosen to sing.

The balance of the programme will include the Beethoven C Minor Symphony, the Tchaikovsky "Capriccio Italien," and the Berlioz "Rakoczy" March from "The Damnation of Faust."

The Philharmonic in its premier concert proved its right to a very high place in musical Southern California. Not an advance assertion, but it has been fulfilled to the letter, it is believed, in quota of men engaged, choice of conductor and types of programmes.

MILDRED CHAPLIN HOSTESS.

Mildred Harris Chaplin will be hostess on Sunday to an exclusive coterie of her cinema friends, including friend husband, at the premier showing at the Superba of "Forbidden," her last picture made under Lois Weber's direction before she signed up with Louis B. Mayer.

"Forbidden" was written as "The Forbidden Door" by E. W. Dillingham, a local newspaper man, former correspondent for the New York Telegram, and was adapted for the screen by Lois Weber.

"JUNGLE VAMPS" LATEST.

Mack Bennett's bathing beauties now have rivals. "Jungle vamps," maids of the woodlands, wearing leopard skins, are to invade Broadway this coming week. They will be seen at the Victory Theater, appearing in person in connection with the showing of "A Feminine Tarzan" in "A Scream in the Night," a melodrama of society and the jungle. They will stage a series of back-to-back nature dances, depicting the lives of merry maidens, who swing from tree to tree with the apes as play-fellows in the jungle thickets of Amazon. "A Scream in the Night" deals with the famous Darwinian theory.

A WEEK OF PRAYER.

A week of prayer for members and friends of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held in the auditorium of the Y.M.C.A. Building, beginning tomorrow. The programme for each day in the week has been arranged by A. L. Sullivan, director of religious work. The meetings will require forty minutes each, and the worshippers will convene every day at 12:10 p.m. The two Sunday meetings will be held at 9:30 a.m. The following speakers have been secured for the week's sessions: Dr. F. J. Purcell, Rev. E. W. Harring, Dr. Hugh K. Walker, Dr. W. S. Dyringer, Rev. S. W. Gage and Rev. F. H. Cole.

JURY DISAGREES.

No Verdict in Suit of Woman Who Charged Land Trade Fraud.

The jury in Judge Myers' court trying the $25,500 suit of Mrs. Rose Eldring against four men, based on a charge of fraud and conspiracy in connection with a trade for land in Riverside county, failed to reach a verdict last night. After reporting a disagreement the jury was discharged by the court.

Mrs. Eldring named W. A. Bartels, Harry Hills, L. E. Jordan and J. C. Rieger as defendants. The plaintiff, Hilda de la Pena, who is now serving a term in the penitentiary, as he was not served with papers the case against him was dismissed.

Mrs. Eldring alleged that the land in Riverside county she traded for and the real value of the land she is alleged to have received.

WOULD HANG HIMSELF.

Eugene Graves, 24 years of age, a negro cook, a prisoner in the City Jail, yesterday attempted to hang himself in his cell. The prisoner, who is held on suspicion of burglary, according to the police secured a rope from his bunk when he discovered in the act of placing a noose about his neck. He had tied one end of the rope to the bars.

Own Your Own Home

Live in Health, Comfort and Happiness in the Southland.

Attractive Home of Spanish Design.

Home Owning and Industry

Here in Los Angeles we face a serious home condition. This city's industrial growth today is squarely upon the matter of providing homes for people who would come here in addition to this city's wealth and resources.

In this city which offers so much to owners of homes, there is too great a proportion of permanent residents living in homes they do not own.

Each home that is rented by one who can and should own his own home takes one roof that should be available to house someone newly arrived to increase our industrial prosperity.

Every home that is built or bought releases a rental home for someone who has come to Los Angeles to make it a bigger commercial metropolis.

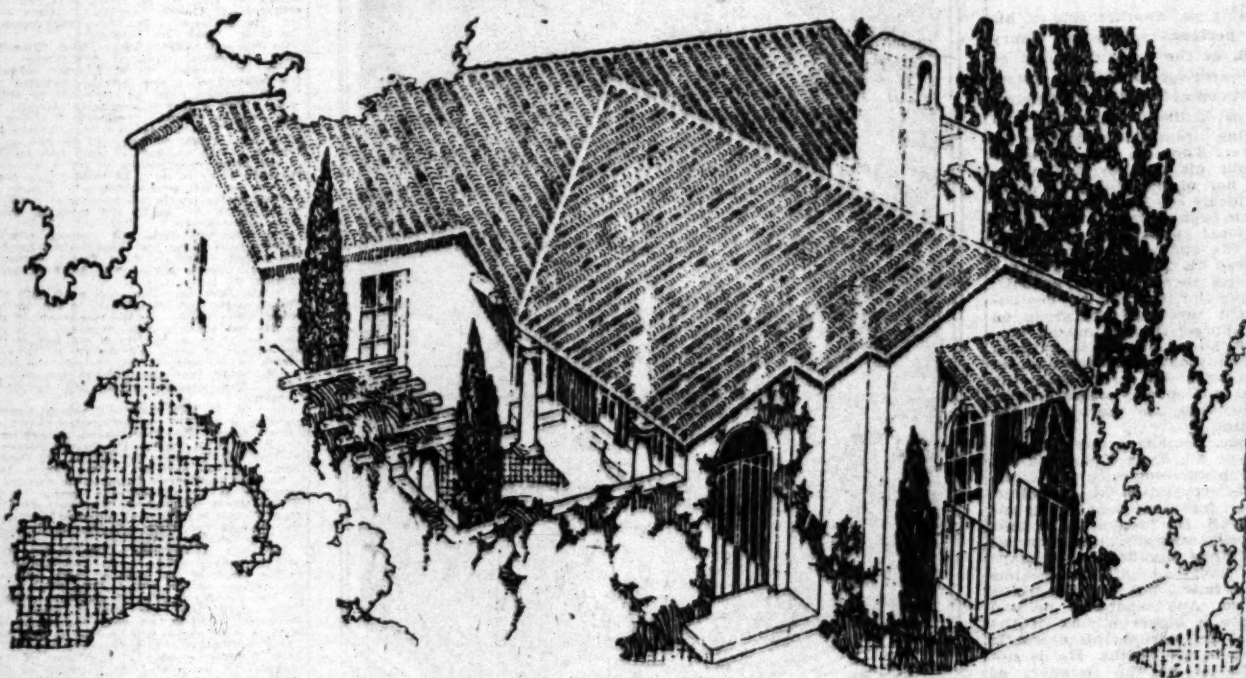

Owning your own home is not only a means of securing for yourself personal profits and benefits, but is an unobtainable means of helping Los Angeles as a producing city.

Selling Furniture and Home Furnishings is the Business of Barker Bros., but the Real Purpose of Barker Bros. Organization is the Creation of Better Homes.

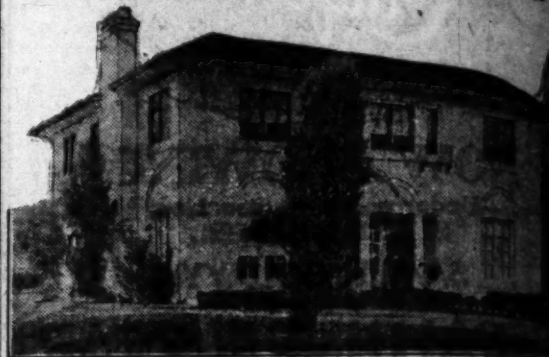

At that is the way we feel about it—hence the spirit of co-operation and helpful understanding which greets you and accompanies you throughout this vast and interesting store.

Coming to Barker Bros. for the realization of your Furniture and Furnishing plans means giving yourself the definite assurance that the things you choose here will not only be suitable for their fitness both in your home and in relation to your pocketbook.

—Also, in their opinion, building materials will not come down—indications to the contrary are that there will be a rise.

Present high rentals probably have no precedent. If you build a home to live in you will save a great deal of rental money. If you build for investment, the interest on your investment will be much greater than the same money can possibly earn in other channels.

HOUSE DESCRIPTION AND FLOOR PLAN

This house, designed by Ernest Irving Freese, for the Los Angeles Pressed Brick Company, is intended to appeal to the home-builder seeking a distinctive plan which combines convenience in arrangement with moderate building cost. It is built on a concrete foundation, with hollow tile exterior walls and mission tile roof. The interior, with the exception of the timbered ceiling of the living-room, is of plaster. The woodwork of the living-room is stained a deep chocolate brown to harmonize with the color of the floor, while the walls of the room are tinted a light golden brown. The woodwork in the other rooms is white enamel, with tinted plaster walls and ceilings in the bed-rooms and hard plaster walls in the bath-room and kitchen. A mantel of old gold or buff matt glassed tile makes an attractive feature of the living-room.

Built-in features include book-cases with glass doors and adjustable shelves in the living-room, cupboards in the kitchen and medicine cabinet in the bath-room. Casement windows and French doors are used. The living-room opens onto a patio which also has an entrance from the front.

HOME SPIRIT PAYS BEST.

Build for Security and Permanence, Advises Manufacturer.

BY HOWARD FROST.

President of the Los Angeles Pressed Brick Company.

My answer to the question, "What is Los Angeles' most pressing need?" is, emphatically, "Homes—more homes!"

Not only do we need more homes and quickly—but we need vastly more people with the home-building spirit. Los Angeles has passed that stage when home-building is merely a matter of the speculative builder. We have reached that point of our development where the home is of transcendent importance, and to own one is an obligation that rests with the head of every family.

We are all of us rather familiar with the unenviable lot of the renter in these times. His position, in the face of soaring rents and limited accommodations, is the least desirable among our citizens. At best he is the victim of the landlord's changing whim; a transfer of ownership may drive him elsewhere, and a situation generally that makes for discontent. On the other hand, the home-owner's position is one of security, and security is perhaps the most important factor in our success. He has created for himself a bulwark against the uncertainties of shifting circumstances, and such satisfaction as this gives is of immeasurable importance in shaping a man's future. It is also undeniably true that the solidity that home-ownership reflects in the man is of tremendous advantage in promoting his position in the community.

But the main point is that home-building, if ventured for no other reason than pure sentiment, aside from its great material advantages, is always worth while. Home, after all, is a sentiment that, when properly understood, moves a man to do his best work. It gives him a clearer perspective, makes him realize what are life's best values, and in the end enlarges his outlook in a way that nothing else does in the same degree.

It seems increasingly important, today that we build homes for permanence, homes that will reflect credit to ourselves and to the community. Too many people are at first inclined to build unsubstantially, with not much thought to those considerations which make homes of an enduring character.

Just now it is highly important that we give every encouragement to home building. This can be better done through the co-operation of the various building elements than in any other way. There is no mystery about building, though many who have the means and the desire are deterred because, believing they are embarking on some "uncertain sea." No one of real spirit need be stopped by petty obstacles, for obstacles are in the path of anything worth while. It will be to the man who builds today, who builds intelligently, who forms the habit of thinking in terms of ownership, who is not disturbed by phantoms which do not exist—that the benefits of tomorrow will come. My advice to those who have building plans in mind is to put them into action. Do it now—today—that the advantage gained will bring his own sure reward.

Home builders are welcome because they bring progress. They create it for themselves and for others. They foresee benefit and they grasp it. They act while the slow-witted meditate—sow and reap while laggards hang back. The world is made for them because they make the world. Whether you build of brick, stone or wood, find your section of the city and BUILD—start today!—The Editor.

HEALERS HIT DE VALERA.

The Executive Committee of the Association of Progressive Naturopathic Physicians of California at a meeting held Wednesday evening in the Union Oil Building adopted the following resolutions protesting against the welcoming of De Valera to Los Angeles:

"Realizing that the flower of young manhood has been sacrificed in the late world war, which was set aflame through intrigue and secret diplomacy, and that we here in America are anxious to secure peace for the future and can do so only by striving to realize in the affairs of our national life those things which make for peace; we believe that can be attained by evolution and not by revolution.
While we are a cosmopolitan people,
it is essential that true Americanism shall prevail.

"Whereas we as physicians knowing the psychological as well as the physiological effects of a policy of bitterness and strife engendered by the intolerant meddling in the affairs of another nation particularly when such affairs are not an interference with our national life, we urge that the people of this great democratic United States resent the efforts of one De Valera, the Sinn Fein leader to stir up a feeling of hatred between the two great families of the Anglo-Saxon people, the United States and Great Britain, and by expressing their disapproval of his insidious propaganda, they discourage any welcome of this man in our midst.

"With this high resolve that the dead heroes shall not have died in vain, and to prevent the creating again of old-time national prejudice, which can but have a detrimental effect on the health and happiness of all people, we make this appeal for an expression of the higher patriotism and true Americanism.

"Be it therefore resolved that this resolution be spread upon the minutes of this meeting and copies of same forwarded to the press of this city, the Mayor of Los Angeles, and the authorities in Washington."

The Executive Committee of the association, which has a membership of more than 150 of the naturopathic physicians in this State, is composed of Dr. Edward P. Bailey of Long Beach, president of the association, Dr. J. Cook vice-president, Dr. George B. Abbott, corresponding secretary, and Dr. Paul Batter, treasurer.

STORM AT REDONDO.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

REDONDO BEACH, Nov. 7.— Ushering in the first storm of the season, a forty-five mile gale is raging along the coast. Pier No. 2, owned by the Pacific Electric Railroad Company, is steadily weakening with the breakers already rolling over its top. The tide is expected to reach 7 feet 4 inches by 8 o'clock tomorrow. No damage was reported at a late hour tonight.

MOTORIST WINS TWO SUITS GROWING OUT OF AUTO SMASH-UP.

Judge Shenk yesterday awarded Dr. C. G. Reum $497 for damage to his automobile as the result of a collision with a car owned by Mrs.
Ida Evans, and $3685 damages for injuries received by L. B. Downing, who was a guest in Dr. Reum's machine.

DIVORCES ARCHITECT.

Mrs. Melvina Drake was granted a divorce from Fred W. Drake, an architect, by Judge Crail yesterday.
She testified that while she was preparing a meal, her husband sat in the parlor and talked with another girl. Once she said, he was on a camping trip with this girl. The wife also charged he accused her falsely.

Mayor Calls for Redoubling of City's Efforts.

Benefits of Quartermaster's Office are Shown.

Efforts should now be redoubled by the merchants and manufacturers of Southern California to get a decision favorable to Los Angeles from the Quartermaster-General in regard to the retention of the local quartermaster depot, declared Mayor Snyder yesterday.

"Our Washington representatives have succeeded in getting from Quartermaster-General Rogers a promise to reopen the case, and to reconsider the decision of the department to close this office on December 31, and our claims should be pressed to the utmost at Washington," said Mayor Snyder.

"We believe our claims are well-founded and sufficient, and merit a favorable decision from the Quartermaster-General.

LARGE CONTRACTS.

Since the time of its establishment in Los Angeles, many large contracts have been awarded to Southern California manufacturers and merchants through the local depot. These contracts range from $20,000 in value to more than $50,000, with the average about $50,000, as shown by the statistics compiled by the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. A. Newmark was awarded a contract for 144,000 cans of salmon, the value being $33,130.
The Braden Preserve Company of Pasadena filed a $45,935.10 contract for jam. A large flour contract was awarded to the Sperry Flour Company of Los Angeles, the amount being in excess of $58,000.
The Capital Milling Company of Los Angeles also filed a $36,498 four contract for the government.

Records of purchases made by the local office from Southern California merchants show that more than 1,500,000 cans of tomatoes, packed locally, have been purchased by the local office since its establishment. Other large purchases were: 4,132,977 pounds of sugar, $483,073 pounds of flour, $488,786 cans of evaporated milk, $37,275 pounds of fresh beef and $23,538 pounds of butter. In addition the expenditures of the local office for miscellaneous supplies have totaled almost $1,500,000 in the past two years.

TURKEY BIDS.

Contracts are being awarded almost daily by the local office, except for perishable goods, which, since the issuance of the order of suspension of this depot, cannot be purchased by the local office.
Many merchants responded to the call for bids by the Los Angeles office for Thanksgiving turkey for Southern California camps. These bids were opened yesterday and were to San Francisco, and it is believed the awards will be made to local merchants, unless the San Francisco merchants bid low enough to offset the cost of transportation from the northern markets to Los Angeles, which is improbable. Armour & Co. bid 51 cents per pound for delivery to Camp Kearny, Fort Rosecrans, Rockwell Field and San Diego bar-acks. Young Market Company bid 49 cents per pound for delivery to Camp Kearny, Camp Kearny and March Field. 48 1/2 cents for delivery to Fort MacArthur and Ross Field, and 49 1/2 cents per pound for delivery to Fort Rosecrans, Rockwell Field and San Diego barracks.
The Calexico Meat Market will deliver turkeys to Camp Kearny for 45 cents per pound, while the bid of the Kestling Meat Market of Calexico amounted to 45 cents. If these bids are awarded locally, as seems probable, the contracts will amount to several thousand dollars.

DAMAGES FOR WRECK.

The suits were against Mrs. Evans and her son, H. H. Evans. Mrs.
Evans owned a chummy roadster, which she used in work connected with her cooking school. Her son asked to borrow the car one evening to take some friends out riding.
